Assessment of applications

- Applicants will receive a decision letter indicating admission or denial of admission within three weeks of the submission of application and all required documents.
- In certain exceptional cases, some applicants may receive a conditional admissions decision pending the completion of submission of all required documents.
- Accepted applicants must apply and obtain a student visa from a Moroccan consulate. Students cannot attend IIHEM with this visa.
- Once the visa is granted, accepted applicants will need to pay all their fees to IIHEM in a timely fashion. Failure to do so will result in IIHEM rescinding the application decision and informing the Moroccan authorities.
